What Other Reason?

Why do all of Newlands' friends cite the fact that Newlands married into the Sharon estate as a reason why they believe he will be elected Senator? Why do they not state some other reason why Nevada should be represented in the Senate by the king of assessments and the lord of the Palace hotel? If there is any other reason except money why Newlands should be elected, is it not strange that such reason has not been suggested by some of his enthusiastic friends? It is true that he, or the House of Representatives of which he claims to be the owner, amended the irrigation bill so as to leave out Nevada? It may be that is another reason why people should vote for Newlands, but that reason, if it was ever suggested, has been dropped, because the people of Nevada are ignorant enough to believe they are as much entitled to government money for irrigation as any other state. If then, the cash issue is the only issue, and the people will vote for him because he will divide with them the Sharon estate, what kind of a man must a Nevada be who will vote for him without his dividend. There may be a difference of opinion as to the morality of taking Newlands' money for a vote, but to vote for him without any of his money, in other words, without substantial part of the reason for electing him, must make a Nevada proud of his manhood.—News.

The Old Management.

The fact that the balance of trade in favor of the United States in the last six years was more than $500,000,000 greater than the cost of the hardest fought and most expensive war in history strikingly illustrates the growth of this nation and the extent of American prosperity. In six years, in spite of a foreign war and domestic rebellion that cost us over $400,000,000, our net earnings from our foreign trade have exceeded the cost of our Civil war by more than half a billion dollars. We are soon to choose some new directors for this firm in which we are all shareholders. In the light of the record of the last six years, it would seem that none of us ought to have any doubt of the advisability of continuing the old management. It has done well, and on its record may safely appeal to the shareholders for indorsement.—Inter Ocean.

"Not Guilty"

Were the words pronounced by the foreman of the jury last night in the case of the State of Nevada vs. George, Robert and William Watt. His honor, after receiving the verdict, thanked the jury and discharged them, and ordered the verdict of "not guilty" to be entered upon the records of the court, and thereupon ordered the defendants discharged. Thus ends a case that has occupied the minds of the people of the whole of Lander county for some time past.—Reveille.
